Dear Resident,

Willow Farm, Chobham Road

Further to my letter dated 29th November 2011 I write to you with an update regarding Willow Farm, Chobham Road.

You will recall from my last update that it was believed that the occupiers of the site intended to exercise their right to make an application to the Supreme Court. I advised that the occupiers had 28 days in which to do so. This deadline has now passed and I have now been advised that the occupiers have given notification to the Supreme Court that they intend to submit an application. However, before progressing with the full application the occupiers are awaiting the decision regarding further funding provided by legal aid. The Supreme Court has therefore given an extension of time to the occupiers to a date that is 28 days after the final determination of the application for public funding.

This news is frustrating as it is unclear how long an application for public funding will take, and therefore it is difficult to provide any definite timeline for this matter.

In the meantime, if you are concerned about any new breaches of planning control please do come forward to notify of your concerns.

Yours faithfully,

LUCY FENTON
TEAM LEADER (ENFORCEMENT)
